First-Class Music by Local Talent.

The local aerie of Eagles is making great preparation for its big home talent minstrel performance at the Frazer opera house November 28-29. Something more than the usual en-terprise characterizing this progressive young order is being made to enter upon its malden effort in the minstrel line.

There was a big line-up at the re-hearsal last night at Frazer's, and the management claims over one hundred ople will be engaged in carrying out the program of the contemplated extravaganza.

Manager Bogert, who has put on a number of minstrel shows for the Elks in Eastern states, says the enthe array of talent here insures the best home talent show he has ever

The minstrels will open with a gorgeous and beautiful stage setting, introducing the usual black-faced comedians in popular songs and dances and choruses. J. T. Hinkle has been pressed into service as interlocutor. At the ends of the circle will set such noted black faced comedians as J. Bogert, K. J. Taylor, Thos. G. Aston. Dick Lawrence, Claude Estes, Harold James and Dallas O'Hara.

In addition to the foregoing galaxy of minstrel stars, the great choruses constituting the principal feature of the entertainment, will be strength-ened in every possible way. Neither time nor money will be spared in making the minstrels one of the best ever seen in Pendleton.

In the olio at the second raising of the curtain, it is said one musical surprise after another will follow in rapid succession. Only a few of the attractions for this part of the show can be announced at this time

HAVERLA'S MINSTRELS

First-Class Combination Coming to the Frazer December 8.

A most novel "first part" has been arranged for W. E. Nankeville's all greater Haverly's minstrels, which oragnization is to be seen at the Frazer on December 8.
When the curtain goes up a huge water melon is seen which fills the entire stage, then the melon opens and shows a plantation scene in the sunny Southland, with the darkeys at work in a field, all enjoying themselves eating the succulent fruit.

After this, another drop goes

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandsuff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vascilne, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most socalied Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send life, in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co. Detroit, Mich.
